One Liners...

Birthdays are good for you; the more you have, the longer you live.

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.

An apology is the superglue of life. It can repair just about anything.

A flashlight is a case for holding dead batteries.

Be nice to your kids. They'll choose your nursing home.

Always remember you're unique, just like everyone else.

A final thought...You can either complain that rose bushes have thorns, or rejoice that thorn bushes have roses.

Silly Warnings...

On a Sears hairdryer — Do not use while sleeping.
(Darn, and that's the only time I have to work on my hair).

On a bag of Fritos — You could be a winner! No purchase necessary. Details inside. (the shoplifter special?)

On a bar of Dial soap — “Directions: Use like regular soap.”
(and that would be how???.)...

On some Swanson frozen dinners — “Serving suggestion: Defrost.” (but, it's “just” a suggestion).

On Tesco's Tiramisu dessert (printed on bottom) — “Do not turn upside down.” (well...duh, a bit late, huh!)

On Marks & Spencer Bread Pudding — “Product will be hot after heating.” (...and you thought???.)...

On packaging for a Rowenta iron — “Do not iron clothes on body.” (but wouldn't this save me more time???.)...

On Boot's Children Cough Medicine — “Do not drive a car or operate machinery after taking this medication.” (We could do a lot to reduce the rate of construction accidents if we could just get those 5-year-olds with head-colds off those forklifts.)

On Nytol Sleep Aid — “Warning: May cause drowsiness.”
(and...I'm taking this because???.)...

On most brands of Christmas lights — “For indoor or outdoor use only.” (as opposed to...what???.)...

On Sainsbury's peanuts — “Warning: contains nuts.”
(talk about a news flash)

On an American Airlines packet of nuts — “Instructions: Open packet, eat nuts.” (Step 3: maybe, uh...fly Delta?)

On a child's Superman costume — “Wearing of this garment does not enable you to fly.” (I don't blame the company. I blame the parents for this one.)
