Top Ten Things Dad Will Never Say

1. Well, how 'bout that?... I'm lost! Looks like we'll have to stop and ask for directions.
2. You know Pumpkin, now that you're thirteen, you'll be ready for unchaperoned car dates. Won't that be fun?
3. I noticed that all your friends have a certain "up yours" attitude ... I like that.
4. Here's a credit card and the keys to my new car — GO CRAZY.
5. Your Mother and I are going away for the weekend ... you might want to consider throwing a party.
6. Well, I don't know what's wrong with your car. Probably one of those doo-hickey thingies — you know — that makes it run or something. Just have it towed to a mechanic and pay whatever he asks.
7. No son of mine is going to live under this roof without an earring — now quit your belly-aching, and let's go to the mall.
8. Whaddya wanna go and get a job for? I make plenty of money for you to spend.
9. What do you mean you wanna play football? Figure skating not good enough for you, son?
10. Father's Day? aahh — don't worry about that — it's no big deal.

The Latest Scam

This new scam is being pulled mainly on older women who are apparently past the age of giving a running pursuit. What happens is, when the intended victim stops for a red light, a completely nude and good looking, nicely tanned, unbelievably well endowed young man comes up to the car. With muscles flexing, and body stretched to its full potential, he pretends to wash the windshield. While he is doing this, another person opens the back door of your car, taking everything you have in the car. They are very good at this. They got me seven times Friday and five times Saturday. I couldn't find them on Sunday.

~ Don't forget Father's Day is June 19th ~

"It is a wise father that knows his own child." — William Shakespeare

"I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection." — Sigmund Freud

What is a Dad?

A Dad is a person who is loving and kind, and often he knows, what you have on your mind. He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends, a dad can be one of your very best friends! He's proud of your triumphs, but when things go wrong, a dad can be patient and helpful and strong. In all that you do, a dad's love plays a part. There's always a place for him deep in your heart. And each year that passes, you're even more glad, more grateful and proud, just to call him your dad!

When I Was:

- Four years old: My daddy can do anything.
- Five years old: My daddy knows a whole lot.
- Six years old: My dad is smarter than your dad.

Eight years old: My dad doesn't know exactly everything.

Ten years old: In the olden days, when my dad grew up, things were sure different.

Twelve years old: Oh, well, naturally, Dad doesn't know anything about that. He is too old to remember his childhood.

Fourteen years old: Don't pay any attention to my dad. He is so old-fashioned.

Twenty-one years old: Him? My Lord, he's hopelessly out of date.

Twenty-five years old: Dad knows about it, but then he should, because he has been around so long.

Thirty years old: Maybe we should ask Dad what he thinks. After all, he's had a lot of experience.

Thirty-five years old: I'm not doing a single thing until I talk to Dad.

Forty-one years old: I wonder how Dad would have handled it. He was so wise.

Fifty years old: I'd give anything if Dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.

A Child's Wedding Vows

A grandmother overheard her 5-year-old granddaughter playing "wedding." The wedding vows went like this: "You have the right to remain silent, anything you say may be held against you, you have the right to have an attorney present. You may kiss the bride."

Definitions of the Month

Vacations: We hit the sunny beaches where we occupy ourselves keeping the sun off our skin, the saltwater off our bodies and the sand out of our belongings.

Bravery: Bravery is arriving home late after a boys night out, being confronted by your wife with a broom, and having the guts to ask: Are you still cleaning, or are you flying somewhere?

Fathers, Then and Now

- * In 1900, fathers prayed their children would learn English. Today, fathers pray their children will speak English.
- * In 1900, if a father put a roof over his family's head, he was a success. Today, it takes a roof, deck, pool, and 4-car garage. And that's just the vacation home.
- * In 1900, fathers passed on clothing to their sons. Today, kids wouldn't touch Dad's clothes if they were sliding naked down an icicle.
- * In 1900, fathers could count on children to join the family business. Today, fathers pray their kids will soon come home from college long enough to teach them how to work the computer and set the VCR.
- * In 1900, a father gave a pencil box for Christmas, and the kid was all smiles. Today, a father spends $800 at Toys 'R' Us, and the kid screams: "I wanted Segal!"
- * In 1900, fathers threatened their daughters suiters with shotguns if the girl came home late. Today, fathers break the ice by saying, "So...how long have you had that earring?"

Oh No, You Did Not Just Say That!

My father-in-law asked me, "If you hate me so much, why is my photo on the mantlepiece?" I said, "To keep the kids away from the fire."
